North American Ministerial Council of the General Conference of the Church of God (Seventh Day)

(as revised September, 2018)

1. PREAMBLE

The General Conference of the Church of God (Seventh Day) (herein referred to as Conference) has created the North American Ministerial Council (herein referred to as Council) as the organization of its ministers. A part of the assignment given to the Council is to establish standards and qualifications for the ministry of the Conference, and to issue and regulate ministerial documents.

The Conference holds that everyone who has accepted God's plan of salvation, provided through His Son, Jesus Christ, which includes accepting His shed blood for the remission of sins and being baptized, has the responsibility to share this plan with unconverted non-believers.

We also hold that Christ, who is the head of the Church, calls some church members to perform a greater public ministry.

We further believe that when a man is assured that he has been called of God to be a ministering servant, and positive evidence of this can be seen by others in the Church, that it behooves the membership to encourage him to pursue his calling.

The future of the Conference largely depends upon the spiritual quality and character of its ministers. Therefore, the Council strives constantly to encourage spiritual growth on the part of its membership. It also reviews its standards and qualifications for the ministry from time to time in an effort to improve the ministry's ability to represent the Word of God and the plan of salvation to a needy world and to edify the church.

The ministry of the Conference is to be in all things an example to the church — in spirituality, diligence, earnestness, discretion, punctuality, and in prayer. The Apostle Paul wrote, "As servants of God, we commend ourselves in every way . . . in purity, understanding, patience and kindness; in the Holy Spirit and in sincere love; in truthful speech and in the power of God; with weapons of righteousness in the right hand and in the left" (II Corinthians 6:4, 6, 7, NIV).

A minister of the Conference must know the peace and salvation of God that comes through the grace of God, received by faith in Jesus Christ. He should have a sense of mission in proclaiming the gospel of salvation to those who are perishing without Christ. Likewise, the minister must have a desire to see believers edified by the preaching of the Word and encouraged to strive toward perfection.

The minister of the Conference must have abilities that qualify him for the ministry of the Church. He must be able to preach and lead out in public worship. He must have a thirst for knowledge from the Word of God. He must have clear views regarding the plan of salvation as revealed in Scripture. He must be able to conduct a ministry that will lead sinners to repentance and promote spiritual growth in believers.

A minister of the Conference must not only display a keen interest in the gospel ministry of the Church, but he must also be a church man. A candidate to the ministry of the Church must be supportive of and willing to work within the organizational structures of the Conference.

Membership in secret orders or lodges (such as a Masonic Lodge) is considered inconsistent with the calling to the ministry. Therefore, a candidate for ministerial documentation must not be a member of such organizations.

2. LOCAL PASTOR CERTIFICATE

The Local Pastor Certificate (LPC) is a temporary document, in that it expires every two years, issued to qualified laymen authorizing the bearer to provide ministerial leadership while completing the educational requirements that would qualify him to obtain a Ministerial License, as an entry level to the church's professional ministry.

The LPC is issued by the License and Credentials Committee (L&CC) of the Council, upon recommendation of the district in which the layman is to serve a specific assignment. It expires every two years and may be renewed five times from the date of issue, subject to continuing education provided in the Documentation Manual of the Council. If, after the LPC has been renewed five times, the applicant chooses not to pursue a Ministerial License, his LPC may be renewed subject to special provisions for continuing education.

Applicants for LPC must have completed the Local Pastor Orientation program provided by Artios Christian College to be eligible to receive a Certificate. Applicants may demonstrate competency in a majority of the required credits for the Local Pastor Orientation program by passing examinations proctored by Artios Christian College.

2.1 QUALIFICATIONS

The applicant must:

- A. Be a member of the Conference who is at least 20 years of age.
- B. Possess and demonstrate the qualities for Christian leadership listed in 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:6-9.
- C. Be in the habit of conducting personal daily devotions.
- D. Believe, practice and possess the ability to articulate the doctrines of the Conference as set forth in its Statement of Faith.
- E. Provide evidence that he supports the church with his tithes and offerings.
- F. Be able to preach and teach the doctrines and polity of the church.
- G. Have completed the Local Pastor Orientation from Artios Christian College.
- H. Have the endorsement of the District Superintendent, and an assignment from a congregation.

2.2 ISSUANCE:

- A. An applicant for the LPC shall send his application along with a transcript from Artios Christian College verifying that he has completed the requirements to the custodian of records.
- B. Upon satisfying itself that the candidate is qualified to act as a local pastor, the custodian of records shall forward his application and transcript along with the recommendation of his district superintendent to the License and Credentials Committee of the Council for its review of his application. The superintendent's recommendation shall list the services the district wishes to extend to the local pastor, taken from the list under Assignment.

- C. The L&CC shall issue the Local Pastor Certificate to those applicants who it deems have met the requirements of the program. It shall act upon applications within 60 days after receiving them.

2.3 EXPIRATION AND RENEWAL OF LOCAL PASTOR CERTIFICATE:

The LPC shall expire two years from the date of its issue. The L&CC may renew the document provided the Local Pastor continues his support of the Conference's doctrines and polity, faithfully supports the Conference with his tithe and offerings, participates in district activities, and submits an application for renewal complete with:

- A. A written recommendation from his district superintendent, certifying that he is rendering acceptable service to the congregation assigned to him,
- B. A written recommendation from Artios Christian College indicating he has completed 24 credits of continuing education in the Diploma of Christian Ministry or Associate of Christian Leadership program.

2.4 EXEMPTIONS:

Applicants for the LPC or individuals currently holding an LPC may apply to the L&CC for exemptions from the initial and/or continuing education requirements based upon demonstrated competency through life experience and/or training received through institutions other than Artios Christian College. In such cases the L&CC will work in connection with the District Superintendent and Artios Christian College to grant exemptions on a case-by-case basis.

2.5 REVOCATION:

The LPC shall be revoked by the L&CC at any time upon the notification of the sponsoring district superintendent that it is withdrawing sponsorship. Reasons for revocation may range from leaving his assignment, neglect of duties, moral or character failure, failure to engage in the continuing education as required, or other reasons of concern to his district. The local pastor must be given adequate opportunity to appeal to the District Board to defend himself.

2.6 ASSIGNMENT:

The LPC shall designate the location of the assignment the local pastor is to serve, and authorizes the following services:

- A. Conduct public worship services.
- B. Preach and evangelize.
- C. Make pastoral and hospital calls.
- D. Preside over baptisms, and communion services.
- E. Preside over special dedication services.
- F. Officiate at funerals.

2.7 SUPERVISION:

A local pastor shall work under the supervision of his congregational board, if one exists, or district superintendent where no church board exists. He should submit a quarterly report to his superintendent for evaluation and counsel.

A member of the Conference who aspires to serve the Church with full ministerial privileges should seek a Ministerial License. A license is considered to be appropriate for men who wish to enter a bi-vocational or full-time ministry of the Conference. A licensee may participate in the Council as an associate member. He is eligible to provide pastoral and/or evangelistic services to any church which calls on him to do so. Retired ministers shall enjoy the privileges of their previously held document subject to any provisions of the Council Bylaws or Conference Bylaws.

8. A copy of his former document and/or a letter declaring his surrender of that document.

The L&CC may issue a ministerial document to the applicant which is appropriate for his qualification and ministerial experience.

7. MINISTERIAL DEPARTURE FROM THE CONFERENCE

In the case a licensed or credentialed minister of the Conference unites with the church membership of another denomination or a congregation not recognized as an affiliate of the Conference his ministerial documentation with the Council shall immediately be cancelled; and his membership in the Council ceases. The L&CC may initiate this process providing it contacts the minister at his last known address and inform him of the date of its meeting to take such action.

8. MINISTERIAL ACTIVITY OUTSIDE THE CONFERENCE

No licensed or credentialed minister of the Church of God (Seventh Day) shall regularly conduct independent church activities which are not under the direction of the Conference or one of its agencies or districts, or carry on independent missions or church activities, or be connected with an independent church or other religious group without written approval of the L&CC.

Should a minister fail to comply with these requirements, he may, on recommendation of the Conference Board of Directors or a district board, have his ministerial document revoked.

9. THE RESTORATION OF MINISTERIAL DOCUMENTS

When a licensed or credentialed minister has been deprived of his document and expelled as a member of Council, or has surrendered his document for any reason, such document shall be sent to the Custodian of Record to be filed and preserved as a part of the minister's record.

Application for reinstatement by a minister who has resigned or whose document has expired because of inactivity or whose credentials were reduced to license or whose document was revoked in disciplinary action, shall be made in the same manner as a new applicant. However, in the case of a question of adultery or other sexual immorality, his document shall not be restored in less than three years from the date it was revoked, and then only with the written consent of the boards of the congregation and district in which the offense took place.

Pastors and local churches are advised not to engage a person who has lost his ministerial document in disciplinary action in any official capacity, such as a supply minister, song director, Sabbath School superintendent or teacher, etc., until his document is restored, except on written approval of the L&CC.

In the case where a license or credentials is misplaced, mutilated or destroyed, a duplicate certificate may be issued.

9.1 EXPIRATION OF MINISTERIAL DOCUMENTATION:

With the exception of the Local Pastor Certificate, all ministerial documentation issued shall carry an expiration date of five years, and renewal of ministerial documentation shall be by application provided by the L&CC on the following basis:

- A. A minister shall apply for renewal of his document to the L&CC 30 days prior to the expiration of his document.
- B. Each candidate for renewal, except those holding retirement documents, shall certify that he has completed 75 hours of continuing education by the following guidelines:
 - 1. The Ministerial Documentation Manual of the Council stipulates that all ministerial documents issued by the Council shall expire five years from the date of their issuance. Renewal of ministerial documentation is by application for its renewal no less than 30 days prior to its expiration date. Each candidate for renewal, except retirees, must provide a list of the educational courses or activities he has participated in to the L&CC over the previous years. He must sign the renewal form as verification that he is certifying that he has completed 75 hours of continuing education listed on his form in the past five years.

9.2 CERTIFICATION OF HOURS:

The 75 hours of continuing education operates for the benefit of the ministry of the Conference to encourage self-improvement. It is an honor system and one's claim of hours for credit should reflect integrity becoming of a minister.

It is incumbent upon a minister to retain acceptable evidence of his attendance or participation in the activities he claims for credit. It is not necessary to submit evidence of claimed activities, but one must keep it and make it available to the L&CC, at its request.

The L&CC accepts the following items as supporting evidence of one's claim for credit hours:

- A. Copies of room and meal receipts when one attends a General Conference convention, or Council meeting, provided he attends one or both of these meetings for no less than five consecutive days.
- B. A letter or diploma verifying that he was in attendance of, and participated in an educational seminar or leadership conference. Receipt of diploma for a course taken online.
- C. A letter from the editor of Sabbath School quarterlies, or the Director of Artios, verifying the completion of research and completion of acceptable manuscript or classes taught.

9.3 CONTINUING EDUCATION ACCEPTABLE TO THE L&CC:

The L&CC offers the following instruction on what is acceptable as continuing education for credit toward the renewal of ministerial documentation.

- A. A minister may obtain 15 credit hours of continuing education by attending at least four days of a meeting of the Conference for five hours of credit, and one session of a Council meeting for 10 hours of credit, for an attendance of at least five days within the five-year renewal period. Attendance of more than one meeting of the Council or Conference Convention for the prescribed days will earn five additional hours of credit, each.

- B. One may accrue 10 credit hours for researching and preparing a Sabbath School Quarterly manuscript (13 lessons) acceptable for publication.
- C. One may accrue one quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) hour of credit for each hour spent in the research and preparation of study material for teaching Artios classes.
- D. One may accrue hour for hour for attendance of any Church sponsored educational activity; such as, Artios Christian College's Seminar Series, leadership conferences, seminars, classes on evangelism, church planting, etc.
- E. One may accrue hour for hour for attendance of educational activities outside the Conference, such as Billy Graham evangelism seminars, church growth or stewardship seminars, Bible or English language courses, conferences held by evangelical churches where "how-to instructions" are offered.
- F. One may accrue hour for hour for courses taken online such as Artios online or via video, Bible-related courses from other institutions, self-improvement courses, etc.
- G. Retired ministers shall apply for renewal of their documents by certifying that they continue to attend congregational services of an affiliated congregation of the Conference as their health and circumstances permit, and that they support the church with their finances.

10. MINISTERIAL INACTIVITY

10.1 INACTIVITY IN A MINISTERIAL ASSIGNMENT

Documentation held by any licensed or credentialed minister not under a regular ministerial assignment by any local church, or district board, or agency of the Conference for a period of two consecutive years shall be declared inactive by the L&CC, who shall so notify the minister of his inactive status. The minister's inactive status shall be lifted immediately upon the resumption of a regular ministerial assignment.

Once declared inactive, any documentation which remains inactive for an additional two consecutive years shall at the end of that period automatically expire. The L&CC shall so notify the minister of the expiration of his document and shall so delete his name from the membership of the Council.

The following shall be exempt from inactive status:

- A. A minister holding a Certificate of Retirement;
- B. A minister who requests and receives from the L&CC an extended leave of absence from an assignment with the Conference in order to serve another national conference or council of the Church of God (Seventh Day), or who receives an extended leave of absence for legitimate personal reasons;
- C. A minister of the Council who is employed by an independent congregation or parachurch organization not affiliated with the Conference, provided he requests and receives the written approval of the L&CC.
- D. A minister working as a church planter, self-supporting pastor, or evangelist, provided he re-requests and receives the written approval of the L&CC.

10.2 ATTENDANCE OF THE MEETINGS OF THE NORTH AMERICAN MINISTERIAL COUNCIL

- A. Any licensed or credentialed minister who misses two consecutive Council sessions shall be informed by the L&CC that if he misses the next Council in session his document shall automatically expire. Ministers holding a Certificate of Retirement shall be exempt from this rule.
- B. The document of any licensed or credentialed minister who misses three consecutive Council sessions shall automatically expire, or he shall be issued a Certificate of Retirement if he is of retirement age or has 20 or more years of service. The L&CC shall so notify the minister of this action.
- C. Exceptions to these rules of Council inactivity may be granted, provided the minister requests and receives such waiver of the rules from the L&CC.

11. DISCIPLINE OF A MINISTER

The object of church discipline is not the punishment of offenders, but the defense of truth, the purity of the church, the warning of the careless, and the restoration and salvation of the guilty. The New Testament standard for Christ's church is holiness of heart and life. Therefore, the Conference insists upon a clean ministry, requiring those who carry its ministerial license and credentials to be orthodox in doctrine and holy in life. For this reason, the discipline of a minister is not punitive or retributive, but to determine the standing and relationship a minister is to have with the Conference when accused of misconduct.

11.1 DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

The L&CC shall act as a Committee on Discipline. In the event of a disciplinary problem involving misconduct, breach of ethics, heresy, sexual immorality, or dereliction of duty, this committee shall conduct all necessary procedures which may lead to the suspension, reduction, or revocation of ministerial documentation.

An investigation of allegations of misbehavior of a minister shall be conducted by the Committee on Discipline, or its appointees, once allegations are submitted to the Committee in writing, and they are presented by any of the following:

- A. A local church board;
- B. A district board;
- C. The Board of Directors of the Conference;
- D. Two licensed or credentialed ministers of the Council.
- E. In the event of sexual or physical abuse, two persons.

In the event the L&CC becomes aware of a criminal conviction against a member of the Council, they shall initiate an investigation into misconduct.

11.2 INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE

- A. An Investigating Committee of no less than three credentialed ministers of the Council shall be appointed by the Committee on Discipline. Any member of the Committee on Discipline appointed to the Investigating Committee is disqualified from serving on the Trial Committee.

- B. The Investigating Committee shall:
1. Confidentially gather all relevant facts.
 2. Interview witnesses or persons knowledgeable about the circumstances of the allegations.
 3. Provide written notification to the accused that an investigation into allegations is being conducted and invite the accused to be interviewed by the Investigating Committee.
 4. Hold confidentially all information obtained, whether in fact charges are or are not filed as a result of its investigation.

11.3 INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE REPORT

- A. The Investigating Committee shall prepare a written report, including a resolution exonerating the accused or preferring charges to be adopted by the Committee on Discipline. The chairman of the Committee on Discipline shall notify the accused in writing of the resolution adopted by the Committee on Discipline within five calendar days.
1. If charges are preferred, the report of the Investigating Committee shall state the charges, the type of offense(s) of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, and the specifications of what the accused is alleged to have done.
 2. The report shall also contain at least two names of the Investigating Committee whom the said committee has selected to present evidence to the Committee on Discipline during trial. These committee members shall not act as prosecutors, but shall serve to present the evidence gathered, and are henceforth called presenters in this document.
- B. The report of the Investigating Committee shall outline the course of the investigation and become a part of the Committee on Discipline confidential files.

11.4 NOTIFICATION OF THE COMPLAINANT AND THE ACCUSED OF CHARGES AND TRIAL

- A. The chairman of the Committee on Discipline shall, within five calendar days of the adoption of charges, notify, in writing, the complainant and the accused of:
1. The exact charges and specifications.
 2. The date, time, and place of trial with a directive for the accused to appear. The date for trial shall be no sooner than 30 days and no later than 120 days from notification to the accused.
 3. The date, time, and place of trial with an invitation to the complainant to appear at the trial to give his/her testimony.
 4. The suspension of the accused's document and its privileges pending the outcome of his trial on the charges preferred. The minister shall thereupon immediately suspend all ministerial activity and if he refuses to do so, his right to appeal shall be forfeited and may lead to the revocation of his ministerial document.
 5. The right of the complainant and the accused to choose a credentialed minister of the Council to act as counsel in their behalf during the trial, and that no counsel who is not a member of the Council will be permitted.
 6. The provision that at the request of the accused, a parliamentarian will be provided to attend the trial proceedings.
 7. That no communication or contact between the accused, the complainant and any witnesses is to take place until the proceedings are concluded.

- B. The chairman shall keep a copy of all notifications along with written confirmations of receipt.
- C. On the trial date, the trial shall proceed with or without the complainant or the accused, unless the accused has previously requested a postponement in writing for cause acceptable to the Committee on Discipline. In such case, the Committee on Discipline shall choose a new trial date at its convenience within 30 days.
- D. The Committee on Discipline may suspend the trial upon the surrender of his ministerial document by the accused or the withdrawal of the charges by the complainant, unless the seriousness of the alleged offense(s) demands resolution by trial.

11.5 TRIAL PROCEDURES

- A. The chairman of the Committee on Discipline shall identify all parties present, including any parliamentarian requested by the accused or the Committee on Discipline; the recording secretary for the proceedings; any credentialed minister the accused may have chosen as counsel for his defense; members of the Investigating Committee; the members of the Committee on Discipline (who serve as the Trial Committee), and the accused.
- B. All parties present other than the above shall be excused from the proceedings, and the meeting declared to be an executive session and the proceedings confidential.
- C. The chairman shall notify all parties present that no recording of the proceedings is allowed, and that only the approved minutes of the proceedings taken by the recording secretary will be allowed.
 - 1. Notes may be taken by the Trial Committee but must be destroyed at the close of the trial after deliberations to determine guilt or innocence.
 - 2. The minutes of the trial shall be read and approved at the close of the trial in the presence of the accused, prior to the deliberation by the Trial Committee of the evidence to determine the guilt or innocence of the accused.
 - 3. The accused shall be excused during committee deliberations deciding guilt or innocence.
- D. The chairman shall notify the members of the Trial Committee that they may not make comments nor ask questions during the proceedings. Questions by Trial Committee members shall be submitted in writing to the chairman.
- E. The chairman shall notify the presenters, the accused, and the counsel of the accused, of their right to appeal any ruling of the chair to the full Trial Committee.
- F. The chairman shall again announce the names of and identify the presenters of the charges and specifications.
- G. The chairman shall enquire of the accused whether he has counsel to assist him, and if so, to name and introduce his counsel.
- H. The chairman shall instruct the accused that he may plead either "guilty" or "not guilty," and that a plea of "no contest" is not admissible.
- I. The chairman shall inquire of the accused how he pleads—guilty, or not guilty—reading the charge(s) and specification(s), one charge and one specification at a time, and enquire after each reading whether the accused pleads guilty or not guilty of that charge or specification.
- J. Having heard the pleas of the accused to each charge and specification, the chairman shall direct the secretary to read the charges and specifications with the plea entered for each, and inquire of the accused whether the pleas are accurately recorded, changing the record if necessary.

- K. The trial shall proceed hearing only the portions to which a “not guilty” plea has been entered.
1. If a “guilty” plea has been entered on all counts, the chairman shall ask the accused whether he has a closing statement he wishes to make, after which the accused and his counsel shall be excused.
 2. A guilty plea on all counts signals the trial to move directly to the determination of penalty.
- L. If a “not guilty” plea has been entered on any count, instructions for trial on that count shall be given by the chairman as follows:
1. An opening statement is to be made by the presenters pertaining to the charge(s) and specification(s) to which a “not guilty” plea has been entered.
 2. An opening statement is to be made by the accused (or by his counsel) if the accused so chooses.
 3. Testimony shall be given by the presenters of the evidence gathered by the Investigating Committee, as well as testimony by any witnesses called by the presenters.
 4. Testimony shall be given by the accused and/or his counsel, as well as testimony by any witnesses called by the accused or his counsel.
 5. Rebuttal testimony, and recall of witnesses for further testimony if needed, shall be permitted.
 6. Closing arguments by the presenters shall be heard.
 7. Closing arguments by the defense shall be heard.
 8. Witnesses may be either members or non-members of the Conference.
 9. Neither members nor non-members can be compelled to testify for either the presenters or the defense.
 10. The accused and witnesses shall be requested to remain available on immediate call should the trial committee need to ask them to reappear for clarifications.
 11. The accused, his counsel, any witnesses, and persons other than the Trial Committee and recording secretary shall be excused from the hearings as the Trial Committee deliberates the guilt or innocence of the accused on each count.
- M. Having read the above procedures, the chairman shall ask if clarifications need to be made. Thereupon, he shall proceed to follow those steps for the trial.
- N. The trial having been completed, the chairman shall dismiss all but the recording secretary and the Trial Committee.
1. The chairman shall state the question on the finding as to guilt or innocence on each count.
 2. Having read the charges singly, the chairman shall, after each charge, read the specifications relating to that charge and have recorded a vote on each specification; and after voting on all specifications of that charge, if guilty on any specification, then a vote on the charge shall be recorded.
- O. As to specifications, a majority vote shall find the accused guilty of that specification.

- P. As to charges, a 2/3 vote shall find the accused guilty.
1. A specification or charge can be amended in light of facts brought out in the trial, but not in such a way as to find the accused guilty of a charge for which he was not on trial.
 2. Anything brought to light during the trial which would justify a charge not contained in the charges included as part of the trial, if acted on, must be done so by initiating such a charge in a completely separate action as outlined in these provisions.
- Q. Upon the completion of the trial and decision by the trial committee on each count, all but the trial committee and the recording secretary having been excused, the committee shall proceed to the determination of penalty.
1. If the accused is found guilty, a member of the trial committee may move an appropriate penalty.
 2. The motion is debatable and amendable.
 3. Voting shall be by ballot.
- R. The accused and his counsel shall be asked to return to the trial room and shall be informed of the decisions of the trial committee.

11.6 PENALTIES WHICH MAY BE ADMINISTERED BY THE TRIAL COMMITTEE

- A. The committee may suspend any document held by the accused if found guilty. The suspension must be for a specified time, upon completion of which the rights of the accused are fully restored.
1. A suspension may include certain requirements prior to reinstatement, such as counseling, further education, or restitution.
 - a. Having completed the requirements, the accused shall submit evidence of his compliance to the chairman of the Committee on Discipline, who shall circulate a motion to the Committee to lift the suspension at the end of the suspension period.
 - b. Failure to complete the said requirements within the specified time of suspension automatically extends the period of suspension until the requirements have been met.
 2. A majority vote is required for suspension and the imposition of requirements for reinstatement.
- B. The committee may reduce a credential to a license by a 2/3 vote.
- C. The committee may revoke a license or credential by a 2/3 vote.

11.7 APPEALS

The suspension, reduction, or revocation of documentation by the Committee on Discipline may be appealed to the Council in its next regular session.

- A. The appeal may be initiated by the accused.
- B. The appeal must be written and submitted to the Council president no more than 30 days after the trial decision.
- C. The appeal shall state the action being appealed and what redress is being sought, whether reinstatement or lifting of suspension and/or attendant requirements.
- D. The appeal shall be worded as a resolution with a preface setting forth the reasons

- why the decisions of the Committee on Discipline should be set aside or amended.
- E. The chairman of the Committee on Discipline shall be notified of the appeal immediately upon its receipt by the Council president.
1. The chairman of the Committee on Discipline shall appoint three members of the trial committee to respond to questions by members of the Council during hearing of the appeal.
 2. An appeal shall automatically open the confidential minutes of the trial for consideration by the Council, which may hear the appeal and discussions of the appeal only in executive session, all non-members of the Council being excluded from the session.
 3. The confidential minutes of the trial shall be brought to the Council for consideration during the appeal.
 4. By making or allowing the appeal, the accused agrees to the provisions for opening the confidential files of the trial for discussion on the Council floor in executive session.
- F. The appeal shall be considered at the time the report of the L&CC is under consideration by the Council. A majority vote of the Council shall place consideration of the appeal before the Council.
1. By a 2/3 vote, the Council may amend or revoke the decisions of the Committee on Discipline, including expunging from all records the proceedings of the Committee on Discipline, as pertaining to the trial in question.
 2. By a majority vote, the Council may reduce the penalty prescribed by the Committee on Discipline.

12. CHURCH MEMBERSHIP AND THE DISCIPLINE OF A MINISTER

There are circumstances where the discipline of a minister may also involve the question of his privilege to hold membership in the Conference. Membership in the Conference and membership in the Council are not the same. Membership in the Conference is held either through a congregation or a district. The Council regulates its own membership. When a minister has been disciplined, the person disciplined still holds membership in the Conference. Membership discipline belongs to the congregations and districts of the Conference as provided in the Conference Bylaws, and not to the Council.

When a minister commits an offense serious enough or of a nature to require his church membership to be called in question, the following procedure shall be followed:

- A. Charges specifying the nature of the offense must be filed with the L&CC as outlined in the section of this Manual entitled "Discipline of a Minister."
- B. At the same time, the same charges shall be filed against the minister with his local church board or with the district board of the district in which he resides, in the event the minister is not participating in a local congregation.
- C. The accused minister shall have his case tried first by the Committee on Discipline and then, if necessary, by the local church or district board. A penalty of suspension of membership assessed against the accused by a local church or district board shall not exceed the time of suspension imposed upon him by the Committee on Discipline. He may be disfellowshipped and his membership in the Conference withdrawn only after his ministerial documentation has been revoked by the Committee on Discipline.

- D. In the event a licensed or credentialed minister unites with the church membership of a congregation not recognized as an affiliate of the Conference, except as outlined in the Ministerial Activity outside the Conference section, or another denomination, his membership in the Council ceases immediately and his ministerial document is cancelled. Therefore, in such a case, a local church or district board may act immediately to revoke his membership in the Conference and notify the Secretary of the Conference of their action.
- E. A minister who has been cited to appear before the License and Credentials Committee on charges and similarly cited by his local church or district board must suspend all ministerial activity immediately. Likewise, his membership privileges in the Conference, local church, and district are suspended until he is either exonerated or his membership privileges have been fully restored following disciplinary action. A refusal to comply with the suspension of ministerial activity and membership privileges may be grounds for the revocation of his ministerial document and cancellation of his membership in the Conference.

13. MINISTERIAL ETHICS

One of the purposes of the Council is to uphold Bible truth as it is contained in the Statement of Faith and to maintain doctrinal unity and the unity of the fellowship of the Church. Therefore, the ethics of the ministry pertaining to doctrinal issues is maintained by refraining from the dissemination of teaching which are in conflict with established doctrines set forth by the Council.

A spirit of fair dealing, brotherly love, cooperation, and courtesy should govern relations among members of the Council. Therefore it is the duty of each minister to:

- A. Uphold and practice the ethics, policies, and ministerial standards of the Council.
- B. Protect the Conference and Council against fraud, misrepresentation or any unethical practice.
- C. Conduct himself according to the following standard of ministerial ethics:

MY MINISTERIAL CODE OF ETHICS

13.4 MY RELATIONSHIP TO THE COMMUNITY

- A. I will strive to be human in all my relationships to the community but will never lower my ideals in order to appear “a good fellow.”
- B. I will not be a party to funeral or marriage rackets.
- C. I will be considerate of the working hours of business and professional men and will not consume their time with unimportant matters.
- D. I consider that my first duty to my community is to be a conscientious pastor and leader of my own congregation, but I will not use this fact as an easy excuse to escape reasonable responsibilities that the community calls upon me to assume.

13.5. MY RELATIONSHIP TO MY COMMUNION

- A. I will at all times recognize that I am a party of a fellowship that has made large contributions to my church, my education, and my ministry. In view of this fact I acknowledge a debt of loyalty to my communion and will strive to fulfill my obligations by cooperating in its efforts to extend the Kingdom of God.

The Church of God (Seventh Day) International Federation is a fellowship of churches and conferences, connected across this world, yet united in its diverse gifts, talents, cultures, and callings. Its corporate identity in its commitment to the centrality of Christ and the observance of the Ten Commandments including the seventh day Sabbath (Rev 14:12) as it increasingly reflects the image of Christ's Body (1 Cor 12:12) and thereby achieving a greater vision than the sum of its individual parts.

Purpose

The Federation joyfully fulfills its unique role in the greater Body of Christ, and in the world, through the transformative power of the gospel, teaching biblical truth and its application, until Jesus returns.

ARTICLE X
Communication

There shall be an effective communication network maintained within the Federation between its international, conference, and local church levels as set forth in the Standing Rules.

ARTICLE XI
Statement of Faith

SECTION 1. The Scriptures

We believe the Scriptures, contained within the Old and New Testaments, are inspired by God, inerrant in the original writing, and the only infallible rule by which human conduct and religious beliefs and practices should be determined.

SECTION 2. God, the Father

We believe in one God, the Eternal Spirit, and Creator, Preserver and Ruler of the universe, who is infinite in wisdom, holiness and love. By His own initiative God offers salvation to everyone and is worthy of our love, reverence, and obedience.

SECTION 3. Jesus, the Son

We believe in Jesus, the Messiah and Savior, only begotten Son of the Father, conceived by the Holy Spirit, and born of a virgin. We affirm His pre-existence, incarnation, sinless life, death as a substitutionary atonement, entombment for three full days and nights, bodily resurrection and ascension into heaven, present work as Mediator and High Priest and His personal, visible, imminent, premillennial return to rule on earth as Judge and King.

SECTION 4. The Holy Spirit

We believe in the Holy Spirit as the manifestation and power which proceeds from the Father and the Son to regenerate, sanctify, teach, guide and preserve all believers. Obedience to God and "fruit of the Spirit" are evidence of the indwelling of the Holy Spirit in the believer's life.

SECTION 5. Man and Sin

We believe that man was created sinless in the image of God. Through Adam's disobedience, man became a sinner by nature and by choice and thereby incurred sin's penalty, physical death and ultimately, if in an unsaved condition, eternal death (annihilation).

SECTION 6. Man and Death

We believe that physical death is a state of unconsciousness for all persons, righteous and wicked, a state which will remain unchanged until their resurrections. The righteous will receive eternal life and the wicked will suffer annihilation.

SECTION 7. Man and Salvation

We believe that man is saved from eternal death (annihilation) solely by the grace of God through faith, apart from human merit, works or ceremonies. Christ's death is given as payment for sins, and is offered to all who will accept it.

SECTION 8. The Church

We believe the Church of God, consisting of baptized believers who keep the faith of Jesus and the commandments of God, is of divine origin under the Lordship of Christ and exists universally and locally for the preaching of the gospel, for the nurture and fellowship of the believers and for service to the human race.

SECTION 9. Church Ordinances

We believe Christ prescribed two ordinances for the church which confirm faith in Him. 1) Baptism by immersion symbolizes the believer's death to sin and new birth in Christ. 2) Lord's Supper as an annual memorial of Christ's death symbolizes the believer's continued union with the Savior. Footwashing as an act of humility accompanies the Lord's Supper.

SECTION 10. The Ten Commandments

We believe the Ten Commandments, including the true seventh-day Sabbath, existing from creation and included in both the old and new covenant, constitute the basic code of conduct for all mankind. They are to be observed today, as an expression of one's love to God and fellowman.

SECTION 11. Christian Living

We believe the Christian, in keeping with his confession of faith in Christ, is called to a holy and godly life in thought, word and deed. This is exemplified in one's interaction with others, beginning in the home, which God established with the institution of marriage, and extending to the church and community. It is because a Christian has been redeemed, not in order to be redeemed, that he should: 1) reflect that his body is the "temple of the Holy Spirit" by his choice of entertainment, dress, conduct, personal habits and diet which includes eating only those meats designated by the Bible as "clean" for food. 2) respond to the physical and spiritual needs of humanity by relieving suffering, hunger, ignorance, loneliness and by witnessing for the gospel. Accordingly, a Christian's participation in warfare is contrary to his humanitarian calling. 3) serve God "in spirit and truth" by refraining from religious practices and celebrations which intermix Christianity with paganism. 4) support the church's mission by active involvement and financial stewardship of tithes and offerings. 5) maintain his relationship with God through prayer, fasting, Bible study, worship and obedience.

SECTION 12. Prophecy and Second Coming of Christ

We believe that Bible prophecy identifies certain religious, social, and political events and trends, including the rebirth of Israel, which precede and point to the imminent return of Christ, to establish His kingdom on earth, culminating in the eternal Kingdom of God. The fulfillment of Bible prophecy serves to strengthen the faith of the people of God.

ARTICLE XII

Publication of doctrines, practices, and policies

Each national conference or council may amplify and/or supplement Article XI by publishing and distributing its own listing of such doctrines, practices and policies as are needed to translate and facilitate the spirit and intent of Article XI into the particular culture and life-setting of its people.

ARTICLE XIII

Ministerial Guidelines

The Federation Board shall establish basic ministerial guidelines to be set forth in the Standing Rules.

ARTICLE XIV

Constitutional Guidelines

The Federation Board shall establish basic constitutional guidelines to assist member conferences to align with the Federation Bylaws. The guidelines shall be set forth in the Standing Rules.

ARTICLE XV

Mediation

The Federation shall provide conflict mediation for member conferences as set forth in the Standing Rules.

ARTICLE XVI

Committees

SECTION 1.

The Board of the Federation shall appoint an agenda committee. An outline of the program along with the subjects to be discussed during the session of the General Assembly shall be sent to the membership of the Federation at least six months prior to the session.

SECTION 2.

A Registration Committee of three shall be appointed by the Board of the Federation. The Registration Committee shall register and certify all delegates present and report on matters of a quorum to the General Assembly in session.

SECTION 3.

A Resolution Committee of five shall be appointed by the president and confirmed by the General Assembly. All business to be introduced to the General Assembly, including biblical studies, shall be submitted through this committee. Resolutions may originate with this committee.

ARTICLE XVII

Parliamentary Authority

The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall be the parliamentary authority for the Federation.

ARTICLE XVIII

General Conference Ministries

The departmental work and programs of the Church are known collectively as the General Conference Ministries of the Church of God (Seventh Day). The Conference President is responsible for the supervision and development of the work of these ministries.

The General Conference President appoints Directors to serve the agencies of the G.C. Ministries work. The G.C. Ministries promote the objectives of the Church of God through the development and implementation of evangelistic, pastoral, educational, and benevolent programs. Most of these programs are divided among agencies established for the purpose of carrying out specific assignments of the Board.

G.C. Ministries includes: Missions Ministries, Publications Ministries, Artios Christian College.

Missions Ministries

The decision has been made by the board of directors, and implemented by the General Conference administration, to expand our efforts pursuant to our articles of incorporation in “promoting the gospel of Jesus Christ, who is the foundation of our faith.” Historically, only Missions Abroad, with its foreign missions focus, was seen as a specific mission ministry toward this end. We recognize that our mission to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ is not merely a foreign endeavor but an all-pervasive outreach. Missions Ministries is now a multifaceted ministry with these areas of focus.

Missions Abroad provides an avenue through which churches and individuals can do ministry in foreign countries by:

1. Establishing and maintaining missions and sister churches outside North America.
2. Providing literature, training, and salaries for workers in foreign fields.
3. Distributing Bibles, constructing churches and medical clinics, etc.

Church Planting assists districts and local churches in membership growth by:

1. Planting new Churches of God (Seventh Day) within the United States and Canada.
2. Encouraging and developing existing fellowships, specifically focusing on G.C. congregations seeking growth.
3. Assisting in development of healthy congregations prepared to plant missions of their own.

Home Missions assists local churches and missions in consultation and coordination with the districts:

1. In bringing the lost into a relationship with Jesus Christ as their personal Savior and Lord of their lives through evangelism training and practice.
2. In bringing new believers into a vibrant relationship with other believers as disciples of Jesus Christ within the missions and churches of the General Conference.
3. In bringing our churches and missions into a higher level of cooperation within the General Conference, continually moving toward the goal of reaching out to the lost and repeating this reproductive process until our Lord's return.
4. In challenging the Church to spiritual renewal.

Special Managed Project Fund

GC Disaster Relief Fund works through the national and international infrastructure of the Church of God (Seventh Day), whenever possible, to meet the varied needs of disaster victims. This fund provides basic food stuffs, temporary housing, community feeding projects, and construction projects like churches, individual homes, and bridge and road construction. The fund falls under the auspices of the director of Missions Ministries.

Publications Ministries

Bible Advocate Press

The purpose of Publications Ministries is to produce and distribute gospel literature for the edification of Christians and for the evangelization of those who do not know Christ.

The Church of God publishing work began in August 1863, with the first issue of The Hope of Israel, the forerunner of the present Bible Advocate magazine. Soon thereafter, gospel booklets and tracts were produced, as well as several other Church publications. After a short time in Michigan, the publishing work was moved to Iowa, then to Stanberry, Missouri, in the 1880s. Another move in 1972 brought the work to Denver, Colorado. Today the Bible Advocate, Abogado de la Biblia, and gospel literature are sent to many countries. They are online as well.

Statement of Faith

Church of God (Seventh Day)

Introduction

The Church of God (Seventh Day) endeavors to carry out the Great Commission by discipling people for the Lord Jesus Christ through evangelism and instruction from the Word of God. To assist the Church in this, the North American Ministerial Council, comprising the Church's ministerial body, has adopted the twelve statements of belief in this booklet to introduce the Church's teaching and practice. While the Church has always maintained an open creed, these statements preserve its theological heritage, and present its latest and best understanding of Scripture.

1. The Holy Bible

The Bible, consisting of the Old and New Testaments, is God's inspired Word. Inerrant in its original writing, the Bible is the only authoritative and infallible rule of faith and conduct for humanity.

2. The Deity

The sovereign deity of the universe is God Almighty, who is to be worshipped in spirit and in truth. He is eternal, infinite, holy, self-existent Spirit who created, sustains, rules, redeems, and judges His creation. He is one in nature, essence and being. God is revealed in Scripture as Father and Son.

GOD THE FATHER

God the Father of whom are all things, whom no one has seen nor can see, reigns in the heavens and transcends our complete knowing. He is revealed as our loving heavenly Father by His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ. Ultimately, God the Father will restore perfect harmony to all creation through Christ and reign eternally over the redeemed.

JESUS THE SON

Jesus Christ is God's one and only begotten Son. As begotten, not created, He shares the nature, names, and attributes of God with the Father. As Son, not Father, Jesus is subordinate to His Father in rank. From eternity, the Son was with the Father, shared the Father's glory as the pre-incarnate Word, and with Him created and sustains all things. Jesus the Christ (Messiah) was born of the virgin Mary by the power of the Holy Spirit, thus uniting two natures — human and divine. Jesus lived without sin, died as an atoning sacrifice for sin, was entombed for three days and three nights, was resurrected bodily, and ascended to His Father to serve as mediator and high priest. He reigns as Lord in heaven and will return to earth as judge and king. Now it pleases the Father that the Son is preeminent in all things and receives our worship.

THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Holy Spirit is the promised divine helper who proceeds from the Father and Son. The Spirit is God's presence and power in the world and indwells believers. By the Holy Spirit, God inspired and illuminates the Scriptures; convicts and regenerates sinners; sanctifies, teaches, comforts, guides, and preserves believers; and empowers them for service. Evidences of the Holy Spirit in the believer's life are faith in Christ, obedience to God, and the spiritual fruit of love.

3. Man, Satan, Sin, and Death

Humanity was created in the image of God as sinless, but not naturally immortal. Sin entered the world when Adam and Eve yielded to the temptation of God's adversary, Satan. The Devil, capable of transforming himself into an angel of light to deceive and destroy humanity, will finally be destroyed in the lake of fire. As a result of Adam's fall, all humanity became sinners by nature and by choice. The result is spiritual separation from God, physical death in an unconscious state, and eternal death for those who do not receive salvation in Christ.

4. Man, Salvation, and Life

Sinful humanity may be saved from the penalty of eternal death and receive eternal life instead, solely by the grace of God through faith in Jesus Christ, apart from human merit, works, or ceremonies. Atonement for sins, with its attendant promise of eternal life, comes through Christ's death and resurrection on our behalf and is received in human experience by faith and repentance.

5. The Church

The church of God in Scripture is a spiritual body of believers who hold the faith of Jesus and keep the commandments of God. Under the lordship of Christ and the authority of His Word, the church exists universally and locally for purposes of worshipping God, preaching the gospel, nurturing believers, and serving humanity. Christians should participate in the church's mission by service to others and fellowship with believers.

6. Christian Ordinances

Christ prescribed two ordinances that confirm faith in Him: 1) water baptism, preceded by a confession of faith in Christ and repentance, represents the believer's initial union with Christ by depicting death to sin, burial by immersion in water, and rising to a Spirit-controlled life; and 2) Lord's Supper, a memorial to Christ's atoning death. Believers commemorate Christ's death by eating the bread of communion and drinking from its cup, symbols of His broken body and shed blood, thus demonstrating fellowship with our Savior until He returns. It is accompanied by the washing of feet. We observe this Supper annually in the season it was instituted and are charitable toward those who observe it at other times.

7. The Ten Commandments

The Ten Commandments were known and obeyed by faithful people before the law was given at Sinai. Later incorporated into the new covenant by the example and teaching of Christ, they constitute the basic moral code for humanity and are obeyed to demonstrate the believer's love for God and his fellowman.

8. The Sabbath

The seventh-day Sabbath is God's gift to humanity from creation, was written into the Ten Commandments by God's finger, kept and taught by Jesus, and observed by the apostolic church. A memorial of both creation and redemption, the Sabbath should be faithfully celebrated by believers now as a day of rest, worship, and well-doing.

9. Marriage

Marriage is an institution of God and is an exclusive lifetime union between one man and one woman for the purpose of perpetuating humanity and enriching human experience. Reflecting the bond between Christ and His church, marriage may be broken only by sexual immorality. Like the Sabbath, marriage dates to Creation week, is intrinsic to the moral law, is reformed in Christ's teachings, and finds its ultimate meaning at His return.

10. Christian Living

Christians are called to holiness in thought, word, and deed and to express faith in Christ through devotion to God and godly interaction with others. As a result — not a cause — of redemption, believers should 1) develop relationship with God through Bible reading and study, prayer, fasting, worship, and obedience; 2) relieve the physical and spiritual needs of humanity by compassionate social action and gospel witness; 3) oppose pride, envy, indolence, lust, covetousness, and other evils in the spirit; 4) refuse immoral amusements and practices such as pornography, sexual immorality, and homosexuality in the flesh; and 5) observe these Bible principles: give tithe and freewill offerings for the support of the church and its gospel ministry; eat for food only those meats the Bible describes as "clean"; regard participation in physical warfare as contrary to a Christian's humanitarian calling; avoid intermixing Christianity with extra-biblical practices, as in the common observances of Sunday, Christmas, Easter, Lent, and Halloween.

11. Prophecy

Bible prophecy preserves and strengthens a believer's hope for the Second Advent. It identifies religious, social, and political trends and events, including the rebirth of the nation of Israel, which point to the imminent return of Christ and the eventual establishment of God's eternal kingdom on earth.

12. The Kingdom of God

The kingdom of God (kingdom of heaven) is realized in three phases:

THE PRESENT KINGDOM

The spiritual kingdom of grace exists now as God rules in the lives of obedient believers. This kingdom was announced and revealed through the prophets and the ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ. We enter this kingdom when we turn from sin to serve God through faith in Jesus Christ.

THE MILLENNIAL KINGDOM OF CHRIST

Jesus will return to earth in power and glory to resurrect the righteous dead, bestow immortality and eternal life upon the resurrected and the living righteous, avenge the saints, and be glorified in them. His earthly reign of one thousand years will be a universal kingdom in which all principalities, powers, and enemies are overcome. At its conclusion, the unrighteous will be resurrected to suffer annihilation at the great white throne judgment.

THE ETERNAL KINGDOM OF GOD

God's eternal kingdom will begin when Jesus Christ, having put all enemies under His feet, turns the kingdom over to the Father. God will dwell with the redeemed in a new heaven and a new earth where no disappointment, defilement, or death can enter and where righteousness and peace will prevail forever.
